

Lesson 13: Citation

HS192 Introduction to Writing - 1
@ IITGN, 2025-26

Today's learning objective

Incorporate external work by citing sources and adding references when paraphrasing and quoting.

Why cite?

To avoid plagiarism

To give credit when it's due

To add credibility to your work

To build upon the research of others

To allow for further research

When in doubt,
cite it out.

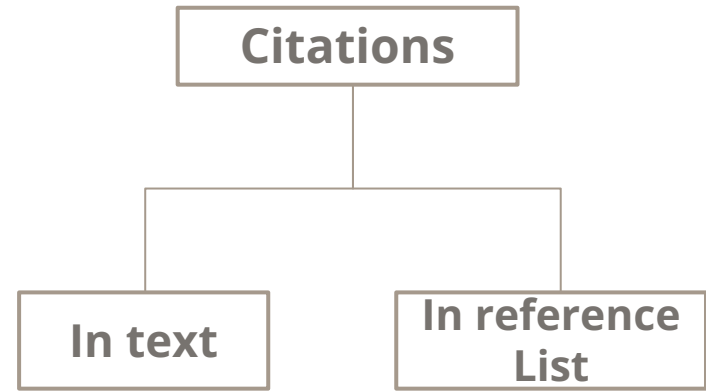

ACADEMIC WRITING

A pair of components in citation

In academic writing, it is important to cite each piece of reference in two ways:

- In the paragraph of your paper as an in-text citation
- In the reference list at the end of your paper

For every in-text citation in your paper, there must be a corresponding entry in your reference list.

Citation styles

Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) is a style common for formatting research papers and citing sources.

It is a style widely used among all branches of engineering, computer science, and other technological fields.

In-text citation

Role-play can help children learn techniques for coping with bullying [3].

Citations that are inserted in the main text of your paper.

You should provide in-text citation whenever you quote, paraphrase or summarize research and ideas that are not your own.

IEEE employs bracketed numbers for in-text citation.

Students in India struggle to manage their workload and live a balanced life [1-2].

[5-7] show role-play can help children learn techniques for coping with bullying.

"Students have become very familiar with exhaustion; it has become a way of life for them [8]."

Reference list

C. M. Millward, A Biography of the English Language, 2nd ed.
USA: Harcourt Brace College Publishers, 1996.

Reference list should appear at the end of the paper.

It provides the information necessary for a reader to locate and retrieve any source cited in the body of the paper.

J. K. Author, "Title of chapter in the book," in Title of His Published Book, xth ed.
City of Publisher, Country: Abbrev. of Publisher, year, ch. x, sec. x, pp.
xxx-xxx.

L. Stein, "Random patterns," in Computers and You, J. S. Brake, Ed. New York,
USA: Wiley, 1994, pp. 55-70.

Class activity

Let's discuss which answer is the most optimal and why

1. Identify the correct in-text citation for this quote from Nutrition and Mental Health by Ruth Leyse-Wallace.

- A. "Levels and ratios of essential fatty acids appear to be linked to anger, violence, hostility, and aggressive behavior."
- B. Leyse-Wallace notes that "levels and ratios of essential fatty acids appear to be linked to anger, violence, hostility, and aggressive behavior" .
- C. Leyse-Wallace notes that "levels and ratios of essential fatty acids appear to be linked to anger, violence, hostility, and aggressive behavior" (4).
- D. Leyse-Wallace [4] notes that "levels and ratios of essential fatty acids appear to be linked to anger, violence, hostility, and aggressive behavior."

2. Which of the following shows the correct way to format author names in your references list in the IEEE style?

- A. Surname followed by first name e.g. Folayan, Nike,
- B. Surname followed by initial(s) e.g. Folayan, N,
- C. Initial(s) followed by surname e.g. N. Folayan,
- D. Surname only e.g. Folayan

3. When referencing a book in the IEEE Style, how should you format the book title within your references list?

- A. In brackets, e.g. (Microwave Engineering)
- B. In italics, e.g. Microwave Engineering
- C. Within quotation marks, e.g. "Microwave Engineering"
- D. In bold text, e.g. Microwave Engineering

4. Match the reference citation to their corresponding in-text citation:

[26] L. Bass, P. Clements, and R. Kazman, Software Architecture in Practice, 2nd ed. Reading, MA: Addison Wesley, 2003. [Online] Available: Safari e-book.

- A. [26]
- B. (Godin, Patte, & Leatherdale, 2018)
- C. [2003]
- D. (26)

Group activity

Pick one piece of information that you would like to share.

Try to make a quote sentence.

In your sentence, put proper in-text citation.

Make a reference entry.

J. K. Author, "Title of chapter in the book," in Title of His Published Book, xth ed. City of Publisher, Country: Abbrev. of Publisher, year, ch. x, sec. x, pp. xxx-xxx.

Chandrayaan-2 mission is a highly complex mission, which represents a significant technological leap compared to the previous missions of ISRO, which brought together an Orbiter, Lander and Rover with the goal of exploring the south pole of the Moon. This is a unique mission which aims at studying not just one area of the Moon but all the areas combining the exosphere, the surface as well as the sub-surface of the moon in a single mission.

The Moon is the closest cosmic body at which space discovery can be attempted and documented. It is also a promising test bed to demonstrate technologies required for deep-space missions. Chandrayaan-2 aims to enhance our understanding of the Moon, stimulate the advancement of technology, promote global alliances and inspire a future generation of explorers and scientists.

If you want to use some pieces of information for your work, how should you cite it?

Pair work

Search potentially useful resources and store their information in the form of IEEE citation.
